

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) Home

Last Updated Tuesday, 09 December 2008

Many Nevadans have trouble making ends meet each month. After paying for rent, utilities, transportation and child care, there is often little left over to buy nutritious food. But it doesn't have to be that way. Each month, thousands of families across the state turn to the Nevada State Division of Welfare and Supportive Services for assistance in the form of a SNAP benefits to help feed their families. Read on to learn how you can receive help if you qualify.
