RIGHTS, RESPONSIBILITIES AND PENALTIES

At the time of your application, you signed a copy of your rights and responsibilities. These requirements continue to apply. You may contact your local office for a copy of these provisions.

Federal regulations now require Social Security Numbers (SSNs) for all individuals receiving or seeking to receive assistance for themselves. If you or an individual in your household is applying for assistance and do not wish to provide or apply for an SSN, only this person's request for assistance will be denied. Undocumented or ineligible non-qualified citizens and other non-applicants or ineligible persons are not required to provide or apply for an SSN. SSNs are used to verify your family's income and resources and to conduct computer matching with other agencies such as the Social Security Administration, Employment Security Division, Child Support Enforcement Programs and the Internal Revenue Service. It is also used to gather workforce information, investigations, recover overpaid benefits and to ensure duplicate benefits are not received.
